

INAUGURATION OF THE CENTRE FOR EXPERIMENTAL SOCIAL SCIENCES

AT NUFFIELD COLLEGE

Nuffield College is proud to announce the inauguration of its newly founded Centre for Experimental Social Sciences (CESS). The CESS is a cross-disciplinary centre created in February 2008 at the initiative of Raymond Duch (Politics), Peyton Young (Economics) and Diego Gambetta (Sociology). The CESS has three major components: experimental lab facilities; a fellowship and post-doc programme; and regular seminars and workshops. All information about our activities can be found on our website: www.nuffield.ox.ac.uk/cess.

The CESS will be officially inaugurated on April 29, 2009. At this occasion, we cordially invite you to attend the Inauguration Day Workshop at Nuffield College.

PROGRAMME

1.30-2pm: Registration and coffee

2 pm: Welcome word by the Warden Steve Nickell and Prof. Raymond Duch (Director of CESS)

2.30-3.30pm: Round table 1: Strategic voting behaviour

Prof. Tom Palfrey (Professor of Economics and Political Science, California Institute of Technology)

Prof. Rebecca Morton (Professor of Politics, New York University)

3.45-4.30pm: Round table 2: Cooperative behaviour, reciprocity and punishment

Prof. Simon Gaechter (Professor of the Psychology of Economic Decision Making, University of Nottingham)

Prof. Stu West (Professor of Evolutionary Biology, Edinburgh University and University of Oxford)

4.30-5.00pm: Coffee and tea

5.00-6.00pm: Round table 3: Cognition and behaviour

Prof. Miguel Costa-Gomes (Professor of Economics, University of Aberdeen)

Prof. Robin Dunbar (Professor of Evolutionary Anthropology, University of Oxford)

6.00-7.00pm: Drinks

RSVP before 15 April 2009 by sending an e-mail to Michele.Belot@nuffield.ox.ac.uk